

CorrectionsOne.com's Reader Survey was conducted between August 17th and October 19th 2017, receiving 642 responses from verified corrections professionals across all ranks and department sizes.

Are you currently in Corrections or a Correctional officer?

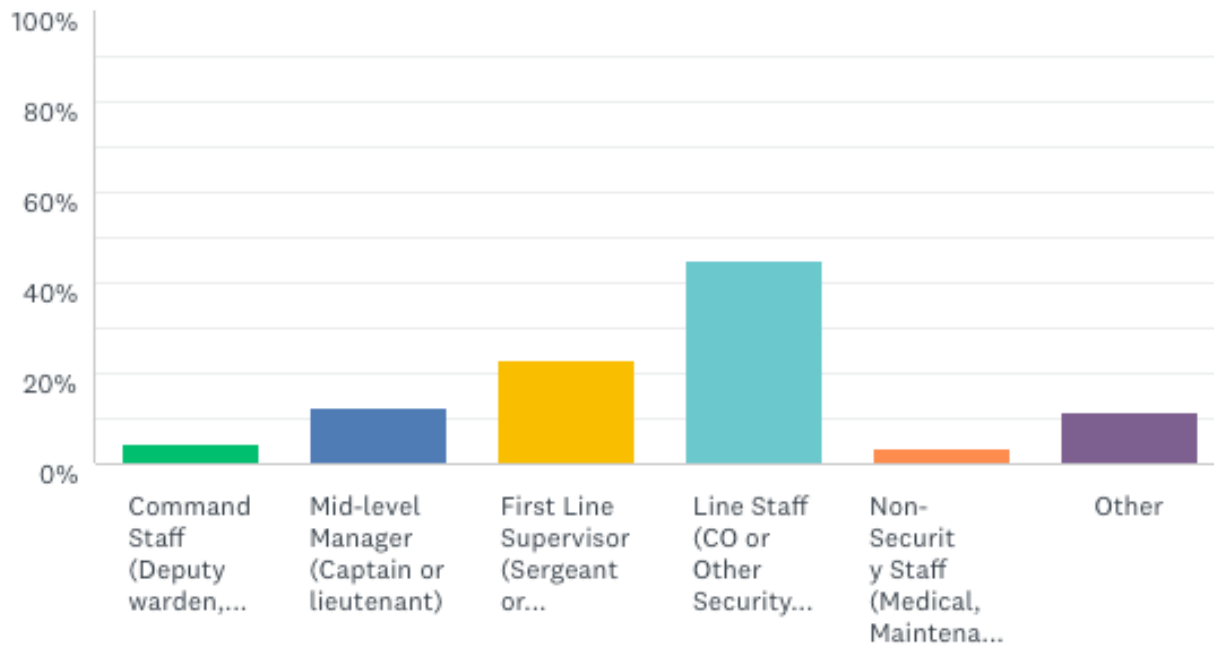

*Note – “Non-Corrections” replies were disqualified from the remainder of the survey.

How many years have you been in the correctional industry?

What is your current (or highest) rank?

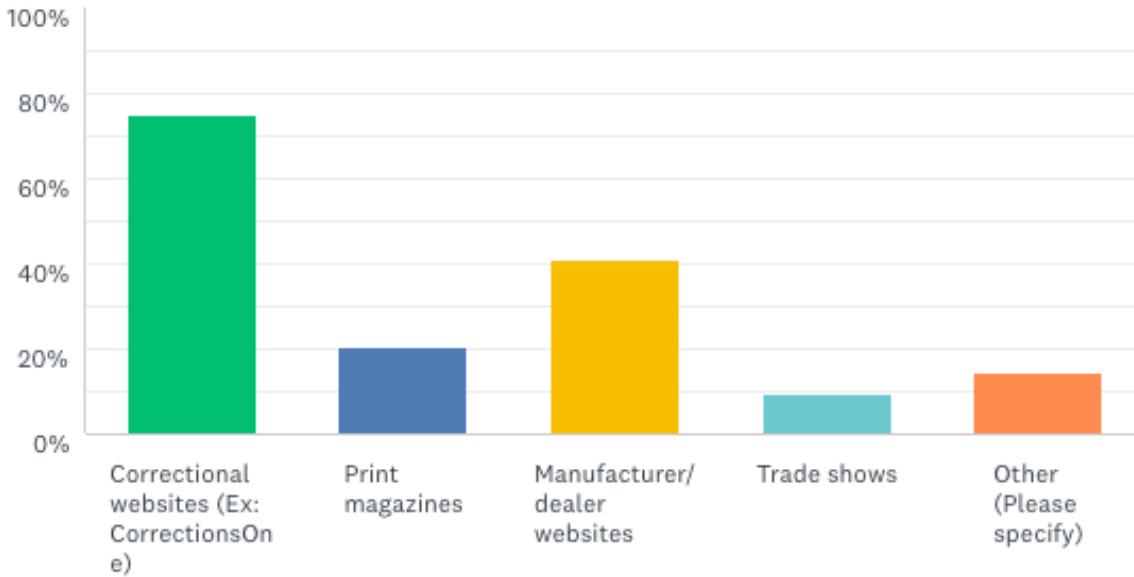

What is the size of your department/facility?

What is your age?

What is your primary source of product research when evaluating products?

What information brings you to CorrectionsOne most often? (Check all that apply)

How do you feel about the frequency of emails you receive from CorrectionsOne?

What best describes your role in purchasing products for your department/facility?

Have you attended a trade show or expo in the last year?

(If yes) Did you purchase products as a result of attending the show?

How would you rate the usefulness of CorrectionsOne’s Product Categories in researching products?

EXTREMELY USEFUL	USEFUL	NOT USEFUL	NOT SURE
23.72%	61.15%	1.64%	13.50%
116	299	8	66

How often do you read industry print publications?

How often do you purchase correctional gear or other corrections-related products online?

Which of the following has influenced you or your department/facility to try a new product? (Check all that apply)

Would you agree that resources on CorrectionsOne have directly impacted your performance and safety as a corrections officer?

Would you recommend CorrectionsOne as a product research tool to others in your department?

